Leadership Training 2018

Sticky Ministry: Word-Based & Relationally-Driven

Keynote Speakers:
Kevin DeYoung,
Susan Tyner, Paula Miles
February 22-24, 2018

Register for 2018 Leadership Training!

No doubt you are up to your elbows in sticky things this season. Just this week I was covered in chocolate while making sticky Christmas treats. I got sap on my clothes moving my Christmas tree. And then I would rather not talk about a tape/wrapping paper debacle that ended in a gift bag substitution. Life can be sticky. And because ministry is life...ministry can be messy.

February 22-24, 2018, we have set aside three days to explore the dynamics of Sticky Ministry at our Annual Women's Ministry Leadership Training. Ministry stickiness has two sides. Sure, it can be difficult, but it also holds the promise of adhering to a life. Whether you are mired in the middle of a sticky ministry situation or you are faithfully seeking to disciple the women around you week in and week out, the focus needs to be the same. Word-based and relationally driven ministry grounds us in the lows and highs. We have invited keynote speakers Kevin DeYoung, Paula Miles and Susan Tyner to unpack these themes. You will also have access to 18 workshops and 8 affinity groups, not to mention hundreds of women just like you who get that ministry is sticky.

In 2018, we are also looking forward to the ONE Conferences in Jackson, Annapolis, Chattanooga and St. Louis. But before 2017 ends, please consider giving to CDM. Your contributions will help fund all that we do as we equip leaders to serve God--in their homes, in their churches, and in their communities. Check out the video below to find out more about how you can invest in a leader. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
